AFION TOBACCO BEATS THEM ALL.

A CARD—TO MY FRIENDS AND Patrons: Owing to the continued illness of my wife I am forced to temporarily suspend my residence and practice in the city of Greensboro and will for a time reside with her at Charlottesville, Va. Will return to my home and practice as soon as my wife's condition of health will justify my doing so. Yours very sincerely, J. ELMER DELLINGER, M. D. Greensboro, Sept. 5, 1897.

A QUESTION OF VITAL IMPORTANCE to every housekeeper.—Is there any one who would not prefer a well furnished home to a meanly appointed one, when comfort and convenience may be had for the asking? Bloxton & Jennings, liberal credit givers, are offering such generous inducements to housekeepers in the sale of furniture, carpets and stoves as will enable many to embellish the home with beauty, ease and comfort with very little ready cash. Call and see them. They are located on South Elm street, No. 506.

J. W. VAWTER, the great house mover and raiser of Salem, is doing work in the city. If you have any work in his line address him through the postoffice.

YELLOW FEVER CERTAINLY.

Wild Excitement at Jacksonville, Miss.

THE EXODUS NORTHWARD BEGINS

Running the Quarantine in Mobile. Leaving Clothing and Baggage in the Mad Rush.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

JACKSONVILLE, Miss., Sept. 7.—Governor McLaurin received a telegram today signed by Victor H. Marston and J. H. Hunter, members of the State Board of Health at Ocean Springs, Miss., stating that it is the unanimous opinion of the representatives of the various boards of health there, from Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and the Marine Hospital that, without doubt, yellow fever is now prevalent at that post.

The city council has decided to inaugurate a limited quarantine against the Gulf coast, the scene of the fever epidemic.

The receipt of the news from Ocean Springs was followed by the wildest sensation here, and people are making haste to depart northward.

Police Surround Trains.

MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 7.—Despite the rigid quarantine, about 100 people tried to get here from Scranton, Biloxi and elsewhere on the night trains, but the police surrounded the trains, and only four passengers were let off. They were through from New Orleans and were let off subject to examination by physicians here; the others will be transferred to west bound trains and sent back to the points from which they came.

Excitement down the road is at fever heat, and crowds went into New Orleans on late trains. Some did not fully clothe themselves, so great was the haste to leave, and many left their baggage behind.

FIRE ID WINSTON.

The Aldermen Hold a Breezy Meeting and Elect Officers.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

WINSTON, Sept. 7.—A fire occurred on Brookstown Avenue in this city last night, in which four small houses were destroyed and two or three others were damaged. The houses were all occupied by colored people and were nearly opposite the Twin City Hospital. Fortunately the wind carried the flames away from the Hospital building. The alarm was given about 8.45 o'clock and all three of the fire companies were quickly upon the scene and did effective work. The origin of the fire is not definitely known, but it is thought it started from a lamp exploding in a room while the occupants of the house were absent.

The City Council held a breezy meeting last night. It was the regular night for the election of officers for the next six months. All the old policemen were re-elected by acclamation, but a new sanitary officer and a new janitor were elected. There has been great complaint of the sanitary officer recently, and it is hoped that the new one is an improvement. The new janitor elected is a negro, and takes the place of an old white man. Such is republican municipal government.

A number of Winston gentlemen went up to Roaring Gap this morning to attend the sale of the Roaring Gap Hotel which takes place tomorrow. The property is sold to satisfy a mortgage.

TAMMANY POLITICS PRACTICAL.

Says Richard Croker, Who Reached New York This Morning.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Richard Croker arrived from abroad this morning. He said he could not criticize Seth Low, but expressed no doubt that Tammany would elect the next mayor. He said that Tammany politics was practical, not theoretical. He also declared that the reformed government had increased taxes without improving the government, and that one administration of this kind was enough.

He refused to say whether he would be a candidate for mayor.

Labor Day in Asheville.

ASHEVILLE, Sept. 6.—Asheville's first celebration of Labor Day today was one of the biggest successes in the history of the city. All the trades unions were represented in the parade and fifty business had floats, making an imposing procession. In the afternoon a program of bicycle races and other sports was carried out at the Lookout park.

Collector Harkins has appointed E. V. Bevely, of Rutherfordton, general storekeeper and gauger. He succeeds C. C. Smith.

Two Things We Have Found Out!

Two things we have found out, only two, but they are certain:

FIRST—Greensboro needs more new buildings, more dwelling houses.

SECOND—If you want people to see a thing, and read it, put it in THE TELEGRAM. How did we find out these two things? Just this way: Notice of two houses to rent was put in our want column with instructions to call at this office; over thirty people called in a week bringing a clipping of the notices.

And thus we know that Greensboro is growing and that people

HE WAS A BRIDEGROOM.

But Had no Notion of Losing His Stolen Property.

Last night a colored man and his bride changed cars here to go to Hillsboro, and as he was getting together his chattles the discovery was made that some one had robbed them. The fellow, who gave his name as Sherman Kinnon, reported the theft to a policeman and seemed to be right much troubled over the loss. He said several yards of pants goods, some dress patterns and a pair of shoes he had purchased as a present for his bride had been stolen.

The policeman assured the bridegroom that proper efforts would be put forth to secure the stolen articles, but Kinnon did not like the idea of going to Hillsboro and leaving the goods behind. So he decided to send his bride a few hours on, while he remained behind and assisted in the search.

This was a novel interruption to a blissful bridal tour, but Kinnon is right much of a philosopher, saying since he is now married he is certain of having a wife so long as life lasts, but if the goods are not recovered they will never be of any service to him.

Search was made for the articles, but they could not be found, so the groom went on to Hillsboro on the noon train to rejoin his bride.

IT MAY BE MURDER.

One Negro Slashes Another at Mt. Airy Saturday Night.

O. D. Boycott, who returned from Mt. Airy last night, tells us of a serious cutting affray that occurred at Flat Rock, just beyond Mt. Airy. Two employees of the Mt. Airy Granite Co. by the name of Ceasor and French, both colored, have had a quarrel on hand for about two weeks, and when the two met Saturday night they proceeded to settle their differences with blows.

Ceasor cut French, inflicting a serious wound, and it was thought that he would die, but he was living when Mr. Boycott left Mt. Airy.

Ceasor was arrested and confined in jail at Dobson, the county seat of Surry.

Carried to Oxford.

Charlie Crittendon, the little boy who was left without a living relative, so far as is known, by the death of his grandmother a week or so ago, was taken to the orphan asylum at Oxford this morning.

His name has been changed to Chas. Wallace, and by that name he will be known in the future.

This is the best possible thing that could have been done with the little fellow, as he will be looked after and cared for at the asylum by competent people who have their heart in the work.

Transferred.

W. G. Bied, who has been the Southern's yardmaster at this place for some time, has been transferred to Spencer, near Salisbury, at which place the shops of the Southern are located. Mr. Bied is a clever gentleman, as well as a successful and popular business man, and has many friends here who regret to see him leave Greensboro.

He is succeeded by Mr. Adair, of Atlanta, Ga., who has been night yardmaster at that place.

County Commissioners.

The commissioners were in session yesterday, transacting the regular routine of business. A full board was present.

The differences between the commissioners and the Cone Export and Commission Co. in regard to the taxation of their business in Guilford county has not yet been settled, but it is thought a compromise may soon be effected.

If you want good photographic work cheap, read Alderman's new ad.

POINTS FROM HIGH POINT.

Personal and Local Affairs Briefly Mentioned.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 6, '97.

The series of meetings conducted by Evangelist W. P. Fife commenced yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The afternoon service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Leavitt, who spoke in a plain persuasive manner that commanded the closest attention. The night service was conducted by Mr. Fife and consisted of Bible reading and comments thereon. Services were held this morning and were well attended.

Rev. R. W. Weaver, of your city, filled the pulpit at the Baptist church yesterday morning.

T. B. Hill, who has been visiting here for some time, has returned to his home in Chicago.

Joseph Remfry, formerly superintendent of the Hoover Hill gold mine of Randolph county, died Saturday night from typhoid fever. The funeral took place from the Episcopal church yesterday at 3:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Mr. Williams, rector of the church. Mr. Remfry leaves a widow, five daughters and three sons to mourn their loss. The entire sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family.

A. K. Welch, who has been visiting friends and relatives here for some time, returned to his home at Charlotte this morning.

J. B. Best left this morning for a ten days' trip to the eastern part of the state.

HIGH POINT, Sept. 7.—The services at the warehouse last night were conducted by Rev. Mr. Leavitt. He preached a strong sermon and he impressed his audience with the necessity of constant work and sincerity of the members of the church. His subject was taken from Habakkuk 3-2. The service was closed by a united prayer for the restoration of Mrs. W. Lee Harrell.

Several of our young men are attending the races at Lexington today.

Messrs. Jos. Isaac and A. H. O'ohn, of Goldsboro, are in the city today buying furniture.

HOT AGAINST THE PREMIER.

A Victory For German Diplomacy.

LORD SALISBURY'S BACK-DOWN.

Greek Revenues to be Controlled by the Powers—Treaty Complete Except Dates.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Salisbury's latest proposal for the settlement of the terms of the peace between Turkey and Greece is generally regarded as a victory for German diplomacy.

Much bitter feeling is being displayed over this action which is regarded as a backdown on the part of the Premier. The control of Greek revenues in the interest of all the creditors of Greece, as well as for the security of the loan to Greece which is to pay the indemnity, is what Germany has been holding out for all along.

Accepted by the Powers.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 7.—The Marquis of Salisbury's proposal for the constitution of an international commission, representing six great powers, to assume control of the revenues of Greece, and guaranteeing thereby the payment of the interest to the holders of the old bonds, as well as the payment of the new indemnity loans, has been accepted by the powers.

It only remains now to fix the dates for the payment of the indemnity. The powers desire to insert these dates in the peace treaty but the British ambassador suggests that they leave these dates to be determined upon by the international commission. The ambassadors expect that all the details of the treaty will be settled by next Thursday.

A NUISANCE.

We wish to call the attention of the city authorities, in a spirit of neither censure nor dictation so far as they are concerned, to the fact that a crowd of loafing and blackguarding negroes every day take possession of the stone curbing around the postoffice and make themselves generally disagreeable.

There is no harm in either a white man or a negro sitting down there, and numbers of both do so; it is a convenient place for the citizen to sit down for a moment to run over his morning mail. It is not the fact that a negro sits on the curbing that is objectionable but his conduct while there.

As a preliminary to the proper enjoyment of his half a day of loafing, he takes a chew of tobacco and proceeds to defile the sidewalk in front of him. He swears and blackguards without the least hesitation when ladies are passing.

The post office is government property and every citizen, man and woman, has a right to the use of it without running a gauntlet of tobacco juice and dirty language.

It is an easy matter to distinguish between the offensive and inoffensive. All that is necessary is to clear the place a few times when the chronic habits are present in force and the nuisance will soon be abated. A little investigation will easily show the facts to be as here stated.

HOPEFUL SIGNS.

ONE of the most hopeful signs of the times in this state is the reports of unusually large registration at our institutions of learning. What we need in North Carolina even more than money, badly as that is needed, is a larger percentage of men of liberal education; a better instructed patriotism and less demagoguery; less building and thinking and living and voting on a peanut basis. The curse of the state is the mediocre and common place; the inability to see the dollar of tomorrow because the eye is fixed on the penny of today; hide-bound business methods and worn out intellectual and political formulas; eternal rustling among the dry husks of yesterday. It is just this that has made the state the poorest and kept it the poorest in the union, the poorest in almost every respect. There are signs of an awakening, symptoms of an advance, but the most hopeful is this promise of a broadcast sowing of men who will know something of our possibilities as a people, and knowing will try to achieve them.

THERE was something so truly American about the President's quiet Sunday at home that it appealed to the citizen whatever his political creed. He can drop into the old home at Canton, drive to church in his mother's carriage, sit in his old pew among his old friends and acquaintances and spend a quiet Sunday afternoon in talking to the neighbors just as plain William McKinley, American citizen, that is all. These qualities in Mr. McKinley one may appreciate, always, even though one does not subscribe to his political creed, nor admire his powers as a statesman. Whatever his faults or shortcomings as a President, as a citizen little objection can be made to him. His Washington equipages and Mark Hanna's yacht and the Whitehouse have not spoiled for him the simple comforts and quiet surroundings of other days. Here's to William McKinley citizen of Canton.

THE fact that bad pork has been shipped from Belgium into Germany, in American wrappers, shows that the Belgian is getting onto Chicago methods. It only remains for him to send in a few big shipments of wooden nutmegs, black pepper made from roasted beans and ground peas under the Arbuckle trade mark and he will be entitled to naturalization papers.

KING HUMBERT and Emperor William are evidently bent on showing that when it comes to feasting and fraternizing and embracing there are others beside President Faure and the Czar. The little improvised flirtation is not like to break the hearts of the latter pair, however.

MR. CROKER might have saved himself a long sea voyage by cabling Tammany a nominee for mayor, and stipulating what part of the swag he expected in return for that service.

THE evidence in Sausage Maker Luetgert's trial shows that his married life was a very cat and dog sort of an affair.

YELLOW JACK IN THE SOUTH.

Iron Clad Quarantine at Various Points.

Rouol Gilpi, the son of prominent people in New Orleans, was taken sick at Ocean Springs, Mississippi, and after being taken to New Orleans died. The autopsy revealed the fact beyond question that he died of yellow fever. The board of health of the city at once quarantined the house and quarantined against all the infected points. The state board of health of Mississippi announces that it is prepared to spend $100,000 if necessary to stamp out the disease. It has issued the following card:

"We have taken further action," said Dr. Elmsley. "The board of health is prepared to spend $1,000,000 to stamp it out. People ought not to get frightened. This one case was taken charge of in time, and such scientific fumigation has been applied as to warrant the hope that we shall promptly and effectively stamp out the disease. We have made arrangements to issue to-night a circular to every practicing physician in New Orleans, commanding him to promptly report to the board of health every suspicious case of fever. We have made arrangements to act promptly in every case."

"There have been at least four cases in addition to that of Gilpi of people suffering from fever who have come to New Orleans from Ocean Springs. Ten of the most prominent physicians of New Orleans have been pressed into service, and we give the closest attention to each of these cases. In every instance bacteriological examinations showed the existence only of malaria germs and no evidence of yellow fever microbes. I am well within the truth, therefore, when I say the Gilpi case is the only one in New Orleans up to the present time, and I am sure we have the city fully covered."

In Washington the authorities are disposed to doubt whether the disease is really yellow fever. Dr. Baibache thinks the disease is dengue or bone-brake fever, but the Mississippi authorities have no doubt that is genuine yellow jack. Assistant Surgeon Wasdin, of the Marine hospital service, has sent the following dispatch:

"A second autopsy confirms the diagnosis of yellow fever. There is general acquiescence in this opinion. The town is nearly depopulated. No need of great alarm."

People are leaving many of the cities that lie adjacent to the infected town. To Governor McLaurin the following dispatch has been sent:

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 6.—Dover McLaurin received the following telegram from the two members of the State Board of Health, who went to Ocean Springs yesterday to investigate the yellow fever scare:

"After a most thorough investigation in every conceivable light, it is the unanimous opinion of the representatives of the Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi State Boards of Health and the Marine Hospital Service, that the fever now raging in Ocean Springs, Miss., is yellow fever."

This fact, however, does not necessarily imply that all great men shave themselves, or that all men who shave themselves are great. In fact, this is not a matter of any concern to the great army of men who prefer to shave themselves. It is important, however, to have

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

Raleigh has a new woman's club called the "Fin de Siecle."

The Republicans are beginning to organize young men's leagues in the state.

The Presbyterians of Winston are making important improvements in their church.

It is said that the new cylindrical cotton bales will be put up at two places in this State.

It has been decided that the work on the Capital club's new building shall begin in thirty days.

Dr. Blacknall, near Raleigh, had a valuable barn burned yesterday; loss $2,000, with no insurance.

Watauga county is the only one that has failed to send in the returns to the State Board of Equalization.

The postoffice department agrees that the State Agricultural Bulletin shall go through the mails without postage.

The old veterans of Vance county are preparing for a reunion at Henderson Saturday. Eloquent speakers will address the crowd.

The mill and cotton gin of Willis Whitaker, three miles from from Raleigh, was burned last night; it is ascribed by an incendiary.

The Caucasian is now located in its new quarters under the Academy of Music in Raleigh, and the Press-Visitor will probably begin moving today.

Edwards & Broughton, of Raleigh, are making arrangements to put in Lino-type machines. C. B. Edwards has gone north to make the purchase.

The authorities of the Agricultural and Mechanical College expect at least 300 students during the term which begins next Thursday. About 25 are now there.

T. L. Wright, of Sampson county, has been chosen assistant professor of mathematics at the A. and M. College. The salary has been cut from $900 to $600 per year.

A young white man named Henry Wall assaulted and murdered a white girl 17 years old just over the line in Virginia. He was taken from the officers and lynched yesterday afternoon.

Among the attractions at the State Fair Secretary Nichols has received applications from parties to exhibit "the greatest living giant" and also "Jumbo, the tallest and largest living horse known."

J. C. L. Harris has returned from Washington, where he induced the agricultural department to allow cattle to be shipped from North Wilkesboro and to place an inspecting officer there. He goes on duty September 11th.

The development of business on the Seaboard Air Line during the past two years is a subject of remark in Raleigh. It is really something quite out of the common. The passenger travel is heavier than ever before.

It is asserted on what is alleged to be authority that the governor will not announce his decision to railroad commissioners before the end of this week. His friends are expressing quite positively the belief that his set purpose is to suspend them, or rather try to do so.

Two negro men who were beating their way on the Seaboard Air Line vestibuled train jumped at Marshallburg, while the train was moving nearly a mile a minute. The skulls of both were smashed and one was shot by a pistol in his pocket. Yet the latter has disappeared. The other man is dying.

Charles Broadway Rouss, the blind New York millionaire philanthropist, has sent his check to Mrs. Armistead Jones, president of the North Carolina Monument Association, for $250, half of the estimated cost of the central shaft in honor of the North Carolina Confederate dead buried in the Stonewall cemetery at Winchester, Va.

Excellent progress is being made in making changes of exhibits in various departments of the State Museum. Some of the casts, in paper, made from the impressions of various monsters of the sea, have been made, and are admirable. Curator Brimley has completed the work of putting up in a new preservative fluid specimens of the fruits, grapes and vegetables grown in the State. They are in specially made ornamented jars. Mr. Brimley has a mould of a 70-pound watermelon from Charlotte.

Dr. Charles D. McIver, president of the State Normal and Industrial College, is in the city today looking over the horticultural department of the A. and M. College, and its methods of caring for cattle and poultry. At the last meeting of the board of directors it was decided to add a horticultural department at the Normal and Industrial College. A dairy farm also will be added. The milk bill for the boarders for the past few years has been nearly ten dollars each per year. This will, therefore, be an economical feature in addition to furnishing an opportunity for the institution to give training in dairying, poultry-raising, etc.—News and Observer.

GENERAL NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

There will be no Labor-Day parade in New York.

The lemon trade is depressed and embarrassed by the new tariff rate.

Four masked men held up a train in New Mexico and robbed the express car of $13,000.

In New York Mr. Platt is said to be greatly embarrassed by the nomination of Seth Low for mayor.

A snowstorm has swept over Scotland. The Grampian Hills are completely covered with snow.

There will be less buying of clothes in Europe by Americans in consequence of the Dingley bill.

Oysters are reported to be more abundant in Pocomoke and Tangier sounds than for many years.

Skaguay trail has been opened, miners are working hard blasting cut-offs and corduroying the wet roads.

President McKinley visited Canton, Ohio, and received a warm welcome from his former fellow-citizens.

The native rulers in all parts of India have offered the services of their troops against the frontier tribes.

George N. Brown, who claimed to be a nephew of Mr. John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, died in a Norfolk hospital.

Captain-General Weyler has issued an order prohibiting the planting of tobacco within the boundaries of the military cultivated zone.

Chas. M. Charnley, of Chicago, the treasurer of the Presbyterian Board of Aid for Colleges, is charged with having misappropriated $50,000.

Constructor Bowles has been placed in charge of the repairs to the dry dock at the New York navy yard with instructions to expedite the work.

The Treasury Department has prepared new regulations for the sampling and classification of imported sugars and molasses under the Dingley tariff law.

Eleven candidates passed the September examination at the Naval academy, Annapolis, and fifty-failed, including Bundy, the Cincinnati colored youth.

Love letters written by Sausage Maker Luetgert to Mrs. Christina Feldt, a widow, were introduced as evidence of a motive for the murder of Mrs. Luetgert.

The Confederate camps and fire department of Winchester will participate in the laying of the corner stone of the North Carolina monument in Stonewall Cemetery, September 17.

The Treasury Department has promulgated new regulations in regard to the collection of customs duties on goods valued at more than $100 purchased abroad and brought in by returning tourists.

The Alexandria (Egypt) correspondent of the Times says that the Egyptian cotton crop just closed has yielded 5,900,000 cantars (about 584,390,000 pounds), double that of a decade ago, and over £1,000,000 in value beyond that of 1896.

The hearing of the application of John G. Woods for an injunction to prevent his reduction from superintendent of mails to a clerkship has been set for September 11. The case will be appealed to the United States Supreme Court whatever the decision may be.

Stricken With Paralysis.

At Franklin yesterday morning, immediately after Rev. Mr. Davis, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, had pronounced the benediction, he was stricken with paralysis. Just before beginning the sermon he told his congregation he felt strange. He can move one foot and hand, but his speech is greatly affected.—Raleigh correspondent Charlotte Observer.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

The New Tobacco Company Preparing to Get to Work.

The Berger-Woon Tobacco Company met yesterday afternoon for permanent organization and elected the following officers:

T. M. Pickard—President.
W. W. Wood—Vice-President.
H. C. Berger—Secretary and Treasurer.

Directors—J. S. Cobb, H. C. Berger, W. W. Wood and T. M. Pickard.

The officers and directors are all good, sound, conservative business men of wide experience, and will put forth every effort to make the new enterprise highly successful.

It is the purpose of the new company to manufacture tobacco by a new and improved method, and they will turn out a high class of goods.

Negotiations are under way for the machinery, and it is probable the new factory will be in operation by October first.

The location of the factory has not yet been determined, though two buildings suitable for the business are being considered.

Dr. Smith's Brilliant Lecture.

Prof. P. P. Claxton, of the Normal College, in a few well chosen words, after an earnest appeal for the establishment of a public library, introduced Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, of the University of Louisiana, to the audience in the court house last night.

Dr. Smith's subject was "Southern Orators Before the War," and his speech was a gem. The gifted young speaker took his audience through the picture gallery of the past and showed them beautiful word paintings of the South's most gifted orators, revealing the wonderful personalities of Patrick Henry, Hayne, Calhoun, Clay, and Prentiss.

This is the first of a series of lectures to be given for the benefit of the public library, and in the matter of speakers we hope the management will be equally as fortunate in their future selections.

Meeting the Girls.

Prof. Peacock has been kept busy today meeting the college girls. They began to come in yesterday and last night, and today they swarmed in on every train. President Peacock's face is radiant with smiles, and he seems never to tire of looking out for the girls.

Most of the arrivals thus far are new students; the old ones will be in later. The indications are that the college will open well, and this will be one of the most successful years in the history of the institution.

May Move to Salisbury.

The Salisbury Sun's authority for the statement that Dr. J. W. Long, of High Point, will move to Salisbury and conduct a hospital. It is rather hard to believe this report, as Dr. Long has only recently located in one of the best and most progressive towns in the South—High Point.

Dr. Long stands high in his profession and in the estimation of all who know him. High Point and Guilford county would regret to lose him.

A Serious Mishap.

On going to his stable lot yesterday Mr. W. G. Balsley, who lives on Mendenhall Street, found that his horse had in some way broken his shoulder during the night. Mr. Balsley had been accustomed to let the horse run loose in the yard at night, but never thought of any danger. The horse had to be shot. It was a serious loss, as the horse had been in the family a long time and was quite a pet.

Mormon Elders.

We learn that two Mormon elders have struck Salisbury and begun to disseminate their pernicious doctrines. It is said these men are more intelligent than the average Mormon. This being the case, they are only the better prepared to prosecute their work.

It is probable that the better class of people in Salisbury will not tolerate them long.

Carried to the "Pen."

Sheriff Hoskins left this morning with two convicts for the State penitentiary at Raleigh. They were Luke Richardson, who is sent up for fifteen years, and Robert Moore, who was convicted of arson and sentenced to the penitentiary for six years. It will be remembered that his "pal," William Ward, was sent to the county roads for a term of five years.

Students Galore.

The trains this morning were filled with boys on their way to Chapel Hill, Trinity College at Durham, and the A. & M. College at Raleigh to enter school. They were, on the whole, a handsome, jolly set of boys of which any college might well feel proud.

The colleges all give promise of opening well this year.

Mad Dog Scare.

The people of Salisbury are experiencing a mad dog scare. The World says a dog having symptoms of hydrophobia was killed on Main street Sunday afternoon, while another was killed yesterday.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

E. E. Gray, of Winston, came down on the noon train.

Col. W. S. Rankin went to Gibsonville on the noon train.

W. S. Diffie went down the C. F. & Y. V. road this morning.

J. A. Crews, of the Wilmington Messenger, was here last night.

Miss Bertha Wheeler has returned from an extended visit to Warrenton.

We are glad to see W. Theo. Williams out again after a few days' sickness.

W. B. Stewart has returned to his duties at the express office after a short vacation.

Mrs. Thomas Millis, of Pomona, is spending the day in the city with Mrs. F. S. Eldridge.

Col. Jeff. Davis, of the Davis Military School, came down from Winston this morning on his way to Goldsboro.

Rev. J. E. Thompson, of Concord, came up on the noon train with his daughter, who will enter G. F. College.

Rev. W. F. Thom, of Gulf, came up last night on a visit to his sisters, Mesdames W. A. Sharp and Geo. A. Smith.

Rev. S. O. Hall went to Mebane this morning to attend the Presbytery. He preaches the opening sermon before that body.

Rev. E. E. Gillespie came down from Wilkesboro last night and went to Mebane this morning to attend Presbytery.

Rev. Rufus W. Weaver returned last night from High Point, where he occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday.

W. W. Cole, the guard on the last year's foot ball team of Trinity College, came up today to accompany a young lady to G. F. College.

John Pickard, of Burlington, came up this morning and went out to J. E. McKnight's distillery to take charge as U. S. gauger and store-keeper.

L. W. Crawford, Jr., went to Durham this morning to enter Trinity College, where he graduates next June. Mr. Crawford is a bright young man, and we predict for him great success.

Miss Ella Godfrey, who has been spending some time with the Misses Eldridge, returned to her home in Philadelphia last night. She is a charming young lady and made many friends during her brief stay in our city.

Rev. R. P. Troy is making a collection of papers and other kinds of reading matter for distribution among the prisoners. Any books, magazines or literature of any kind sent to Mr. Troy for this cause will be appreciated and be used where they will do good. Mr. Troy resides on Mendenhall street.
